Named to Head Heritage Foundation

Gen. Walter Bedell Smith

John C. Cornelius

The appointment of Gen. Walter Bedell Smith as board chairman and of John C. Cornelius as president of the American Heritage Foundation was announced yesterday by the board of trustees. General Smith succeeds Henry Ford 2d as chairman. It was announced also that the foundation would undertake a national nonpartisan campaign to persuade all eligible citizens to register and vote in the 1956 elections. The foundation recently closed a successful "Crusade for Freedom" campaign.
